Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on original skin to that of the constitution of the United States embodied in the same spirit of freedom and equality which threatened to bring about that dire danger which threatened to some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union. All the evidences of public opinion at that time tend to indicate that the Missouri people became converts in the cause of the American people as a sacred thing, which no懦弱的 hand would ever be ready enough to touch.

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there friend or enemy, as the case may be, who know something about the Missouri Compromise [Chase]. I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herzen V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, Aug. 15, 1860.

It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slaves in every part of that territory. Under this doctrine, they have converted the entire country into slave territory, more than twice the size of the state of New York. Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of Mexico. Not only up to 35 deg. 20 min., but up to 88 deg., giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed!"—Herzen V. Johnson.

The Fusionists in Quarrel.

There is a rupture among the New York fusionists. When the bargain was concluded it was announced that the know nothings were to have ten of the electors and the Douglassies twenty-five. Such seems to have been the understanding of Gov. Hunt and the Express. On the other hand, Mr. Ottendorf, editor of the N. Y. Staats Zeitung, one of the coalition electors, states positively that every vote given for the ticket is to count wholly and entirely for Douglas and Johnson. The Rochester Union says "the ticket is a clean Douglas ticket," and it was considered that the know nothings had handed down their flag and joined the Douglas party. Upon this state of things becoming publicly known, it was suspected by the Bell-Everett men that they had been sold, either through the connivance of their own leaders, or on account of their stupidity, and Mr. Depewyter Ogden, an American elector, declines being a candidate on the Douglas electoral ticket, unless with the distinct understanding that he may vote for Bell and Everett. This will bring matters to a focus, and it will be seen who is the swindled party in this horse-jockey political trade. Whatever the development may be it is clear enough that the future relations of the high contracting parties will not be of the most harmonious kind.

The probability is that there will be a regular quarrel among the fusionists, to the utter disgust of all the honest men of both the parties, who will absolve themselves from such corrupt coalitions by voting the republican ticket. There can scarcely be a doubt now that Lincoln will gain immense by the attempted fusion in New York.

There is a lesson which this discomfiture of the peddling politicians inculcates, which will not be thrown away. It is this—a political party cannot exist upon plots, bargains, cunning contrivances, or sharp dodges got up for the sole purpose of winning the spoils—must be dignified by adherence to some principle that has the public good in view. The Douglas and Bell-Everett parties do not discuss principles, but seem wholly absorbed in attempts at combinations to beat the republicans. In this they confess their inability to meet the republican party single handed. There must be a coalition of the parties to beat us—if this desperate expedient fails, as it has failed, they confess that Lincoln and Hamlin will be elected.

Having no principles to propose and discuss, and having degraded their plan of the presidential campaign into a miserable system of ambuscades and skirmishes, which are everywhere unsuccessful, our opponents have become disorganized and the battle for them is lost. They abandoned Pennsylvania some time ago, and concentrated their energies upon New York, and failing here, they can have no other object than for each faction to contend for the most votes, that it may become the rallying point in a future opposition party.

WITHDRAWAL.—It is announced that Gov.

Banks of Massachusetts has withdrawn as a candidate for re-election. The announcement was unexpected by the republicans, and an animated canvass for his successor has already commenced. H. H. Rice, John A. Andrew, Geo. S. Boutwell and others are mentioned.

TELEGRAPH EXTENSION.—The telegraph was extended a few months since, westward from St. Louis to St. Joseph, thus bringing us California news considerably earlier than before. A further extension to Fort Kearney is nearly five hundred miles west of St. Louis. The telegraph is gradually crossing the continent, and in another year or so will probably bring to completion an entire line of communication from New York to San Francisco.

How to Preserve Women—A Chapter of Excellent Advice.

There is nothing in the world that we think so much of as we do of women. Our mother, wife, sister, and pretty cousins are women, and the daughters will be (Heaven spare them) if they live long enough. And there is a love of women in general which we do not deny. And the magnificent specimen of the sex, full of life and health, a ripe, red cheek and flashing eye, a something that does one good to look at as she illuminates the hum-drum sidewalks and every day streets. A North River steamer, under full headway, with colors flying, is rather a pretty sight—rather stirring and inspiring—and we pull up our nap to see her pass, and admire the swell she cuts. Comparatively, however, the steamer sinks into insignificance, or some other deep water, by the side of a well kept, well dressed woman. There is no rubbing it out; women are the charm, blessing, beauty and bliss of life—men's life, we mean, of course. Any means, therefore, that can be devised for preserving them should be publicly made known. They are different from any other kind of fruit. You cannot pickle them. You cannot do them up in sugar and set them away in a room with a paper soured in brandy over their mouths. You cannot put them in cans sealed up tight, without injuring their form and flavor. Now, as men are so dependent upon women for their choicest blessings, a proper mode of preserving them becomes of great moment, and we are sure that the public will thank us for an infallible receipt.

A somewhat similar outrage was attempted on Mr. Guido Igles of Vincennes, a republican German, who attempted to speak in Dubois county recently, and was threatened with a lynching if he did. The Prince landed shortly after 9 o'clock amidst royal salutes from the batteries on St. Helena Island, by the fleet and regulars. It was a beautiful morning, upwards of 40,000 persons were present. The streets which were swarming with crowds are beautifully decorated.

A full attendance of all interested in the temperance movement is requested.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The time of departure for the morning train on the Galena and Chicago road has been changed to 10:45, and the arrival in the afternoon to 4:30.

SAD ACCIDENT AT BELoit.—On the evening of the 17th inst., Miss Alice Foster, a young lady of eighteen years, met her death in a very sudden and singular manner—She was exercising on horseback, and accidentally came in contact with a stake or pole projecting from a fence, in such a manner as to strike her person in the side, rupturing an artery. She bled to death in about two hours.

APPLE CROP.—In ten years past there has not been so large a crop of apples throughout the United States as the present year. In New England, New York, Ohio and Michigan particularly, the crop is enormous. Orchards that have borne but lightly for some years will have hundreds of bushels. In good apple districts we have every evidence that apples will not sell for more than 75¢ to $1.25 per barrel, and indeed at $1.00 exclusive of the barrels. In Wisconsin we may look for large quantities, as the return freight from the lower lake ports will be comparatively low. We have no doubt over 200,000 barrels will be bro't to Milwaukee, and prices cannot rule higher than $1.50 to $2.50 per barrel.

It will be perceived by referring to the marriage column that Charley Capron, clerk in the freight office of the M. & M. railroad in this city, has taken to himself a wife. This is a sensible thing for a young man to do, and especially for one who is so worthy of the affections of a fair lady. If he is as attentive and faithful in his new relations, as he has been to business for the last four or five years, he will make a model husband. Success and a long life of happiness to himself and his fair bride.

THE HARVEST.—The Beloit Journal of yesterday says—"For over four weeks the harvest has been steadily progressing, and yet we saw on Rock prairie, last Saturday, thousands of acres not yet stacked, and some still unbound; and understood that a considerable amount of grain is still uncut in some localities. The farmers state that the straw is heavier this year than ever before, and the labor much greater on the same number of acres. The weather has been as fair as could be wished, being cool, with occasional showers."

A CONFIRMED GRIMESLER.—The LaCrosse Union has come across a specimen of humanity whose counterpart can probably be found in other portions of the state. "We heard (says the Union) a farmer grumble to-day because his eighty acres of wheat did not yield but two thousand seven hundred and ninety bushels, or a little over 34 bushels to the acre! His neighbor, two miles up the creek in Lewis' valley, had 56 bushels to the acre, and this poor chaff felt bad about it! Somebody should make it up to him."

POPULATION OF WHITEWATER.—Marshall informs the Register that the population of the village of Whitewater, according to the census just completed, is 2,731. In 1855 the population of the entire town—the village being at that time not incorporated—was 2,224.

The state fair of Minnesota, is to be held at Fort Snelling, on the 26th, 27th and 28th of September.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 24th, 1860.
Editor of the Gazette.

In your paper of Wednesday evening, after speaking of "the coming tournament" you give an invitation like this, "Let everybody come, everybody with one exception. The old bachelor. Let him stay at home." Now in justice to our oft abused and dignified brotherhood, I as one of them wish to enter my solemn protest.

J. Richard Dorkins, do most seriously protest against the exclusion in the invitation given by the Daily Gazette, to the people to attend the National Horse Show, believing the same to be unjust, unfair and a scandal to a country overflowing with the bounties of Providence, the milk of human kindness, and—and—and lots of marriageable daughters. Women are often mis-called the last best gift to man. Oh folly! Oh flattery, how subtle thy charms! What, we who are the salt of the earth, the dignity of the race, the representatives of sensible men, to be excluded from a show just because we have not been fools enough to throw ourselves under the influence, orders and rule of some smiling wixen, with "flashing eyes," "sunry curls" and "rosy lips," thenceforth to live a life of terror. Preposterous, absurd, Mr. Editor. What, are we who obey the laws, support the church, abate nuisances and give character to a community, to be debarred the privilege of spending our money as suits our own convenience, simply because we have asserted our manly independence and, have not followed the example of old Father Adam, who took a rib with his eyes shut and soon after regretted it? Shame on you, Mr. Editor, for advancing such an idea. Ridiculous, foolish and unworthy a christian community. Don't you know, Sirs, that Janesville has the name of being a model city and that it is the number of its "old bachelors" that gives it that name.

I herewith (on consultation) call an adjourned meeting of the abused brotherhood to meet at Scroggins & Flint's office, on Sunday evening at 8½ o'clock, to express our feelings and adopt measures to prevent future "wisecracy." Till that time please discontinue my paper, and oblige

NICHARD DORKINS.

P. S. Please consider the small amount of arreages as offset by the insult you have given our order. Yours, &c., DICK D.

NATIONAL HORSE SHOW.—An adjourned meeting of the executive committee of this fair will be held at the office of Eldredge, Pease & Rager Saturday evening, 25th inst., at 8 o'clock. The following are the members of this committee: J. J. Pease, R. B. Trout, J. P. Dickson, M. P. McKey, H. E. Pattison, D. H. Dabbitt, M. C. Smith, O. P. Robinson, Platt Eshleman, J. M. Learned, Chas. Holt and E. H. Bennett.

Several matters connected with the fair require the action of this committee, and it is hoped each member will consider this publication a personal notice, and attend promptly.

LIFE INSURANCE.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in one Wisconsin company, it having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While due doubts that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. D. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

W. J. M. PLIXER & HARLOW, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this company, and will be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed. 18th & 19th.

Agricultural Notice.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Rock County Agricultural Society and Mechanics' Institute, will be held at the Court Room in Janesville, on Monday, September 3d, 1860, at 10 o'clock A. M.

JERE BLOUNT, Sec'y.

We are requested by a democrat of this city to publish the following call:

Democrat Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting of the democrats of the city of Janesville will be held at the Court Room, Monday Evening, August 21, at 7½ o'clock, to appoint two delegates to the democratic congressional convention to be held at Prairie du Chien, Wednesday, the 29th inst. It is hoped every democrat in the city will attend. Per order com.

Aug. 25, 1860.

Rev. H. C. Tilton will deliver a temperance address next Sabbath afternoon, at 1 o'clock, at the Methodist church. Subject—"The crime of Moderate Drunken."

There will be a meeting of the "Janesville Total Abstinence League" on Monday evening next, at half past seven o'clock, at the same place, for the transaction of business and for the discussion of the following question:

"Ought the legislature to authorize the granting of licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage?"

full attendance of all interested in the temperance movement is requested.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The time of departure for the morning train on the Galena and Chicago road has been changed to 10:45, and the arrival in the afternoon to 4:30.

SAD ACCIDENT AT BELoit.—On the evening of the 17th inst., Miss Alice Foster, a young lady of eighteen years, met her death in a very sudden and singular manner. She was exercising on horseback, and accidentally came in contact with a stake or pole projecting from a fence, in such a manner as to strike her person in the side, rupturing an artery. She bled to death in about two hours.

APPLE CROP.—In ten years past there has not been so large a crop of apples throughout the United States as the present year. In New England, New York, Ohio and Michigan particularly, the crop is enormous. Orchards that have borne but lightly for some years will have hundreds of bushels. In good apple districts we have every evidence that apples will not sell for more than 75¢ to $1.25 per barrel, and cedar at $1.00 exclusive of the barrels. In Wisconsin we may look for large quantities, as the return freight from the lower lake ports will be comparatively low. We have no doubt over 200,000 barrels will be bro't to Milwaukee, and prices cannot rule higher than $1.50 to $2.50 per barrel.

It will be perceived by referring to the marriage column that Charley Capron, clerk in the freight office of the M. & M. railroad in this city, has taken to himself a wife. This is a sensible thing for a young man to do, and especially for one who is so worthy of the affections of a fair lady. If he is as attentive and faithful in his new relations, as he has been to business for the last four or five years, he will make a model husband. Success and a long life of happiness to himself and his fair bride.

THE HARVEST.—The Beloit Journal of yesterday says—"For over four weeks the harvest has been steadily progressing, and yet we saw on Rock prairie, last Saturday, thousands of acres not yet staked, and some still unbound; and understood that a considerable amount of grain is still uncut in some localities. The farmers state that the straw is heavier this year than ever before, and the labor much greater on the same number of acres. The weather has been as fair as could be wished, being cool, with occasional showers."

A CONFIRMED GROWLER.—The LaCrosse Union has come across a specimen of humanity whose counterpart can probably be found in other portions of the state. "We heard (says the Union) a farmer grumble to-day because his eighty acres of wheat did not yield but two thousand seven hundred and ninety bushels, or a little over 34 bushels to the acre! His neighbor, two miles up the creek in Lewis' valley, had 36 bushels to the acre, and this poor chap felt bad about it! Somebody should make it up to him."

POPULATION OF WHITEWATER.—Marshall's Register informs the Register that the population of the village of Whitewater, according to the census just completed, is 3,731. In 1855 the population of the entire town—the village being at that time not incorporated—was 2,224.

The state fair of Minnesota, is to be held at Fort Snelling, on the 26th, 27th and 28th of September.

Three men were killed by lightning in the immediate vicinity of Newark, N. J., last Saturday.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 24th, 1860.
Editor of the Gazette:

In your paper of Wednesday evening, after speaking of "the coming tournament" you give an invitation like this, "Let everybody come, everybody with one exception. The old bachelor. Let him stay at home." Now in justice to our oft abused and dignified brotherhood, I as one of them wish to enter my solemn protest.

I, Richard Dorkins, do most seriously protest against the exclusion in the invitation given by the Daily Gazette, to the people to attend the National Horse Show, believing the same to be unjust, unfair and a scandal to a country overflowing with the bounties of Providence, the milk of human kindness, and—and—and lots of marriageable daughters. Women are often mis-called the last best gift to man. Oh! Oh! Oh! flattery, how subtle thy charms! What, we who are the salt of the earth, the dignity of the race, the representatives of sensible men, to be excluded from a show just because we have not been fools enough to throw ourselves under the influence, orders and rule of some smiling wixen, with "flashing eyes," "sunny curls" and "rosy lips," therewith to live a life of terror. Preposterous, absurd, Mr. Editor. What, are we who obey the laws, support the church, abate nuisances and give character to a community, to be debarred the privilege of spending our money as suits our own convenience, simply because we have asserted our manly independence and, have not followed the example of old Father Adam, who took a rib with his eyes shut and soon after regretted it? Shame on you, Mr. Editor, for advancing such an idea. Ridiculous, foolish and unworthy christian community. Don't you know, Sirs, that Janesville has the name of being a model city and that it is the number of its "old bachelors" that gives it that name.

I herewith (on consultation) call an indignation meeting of the abused brotherhood to meet at Scroggins & Flint's office, on Sunday evening at 8½ o'clock, to express our feelings and adopt measures to prevent future wickedness. Till that time please discontinue my paper, and oblige

RICHARD DORKINS.

P. S. Please consider the small amount of arrears as offset by the insult you have given our order.

Yours, &c.,

DICK D.

NATIONAL HORSE SHOW.—An adjourned meeting of the executive committee of this fair will be held at the office of Eldredge, Pease & Rager Saturday evening, 25th inst. at 7½ o'clock. The following are the members of this committee: J. R. Pease, R. B. Treat, J. P. Dickson, M. F. McKey, H. E. Pattison, D. H. Dabbs, M. C. Smith, O. P. Robinson, Platt Eyesheimer, J. M. Learned, Chas. Holt and E. H. Bennett.

Several matters connected with the fair require the action of this committee, and it is hoped each member will consider this publication a personal notice, and attend promptly.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safe and cheap protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of principle that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While great demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. That our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented" will induce us to invite all our citizens to call at our office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. D. DAGGERT, President.

A. W. Keeton, Secretary.

Mr. Meier, Pidley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in their company, and will also be happy to give information to the candidates, prior to our departure of being informed, in Janesville.
